ABSTRACT

Data from a long-term clinical research study are usually maintained with a database software package. The Data Management module in SAS/ASSIST software can be used to enter and manage data.

Create Formats window. This allows the appropriate variables in the Utilities menu in the Data Menu to be placed with their respective variables.